

- | | | | | | |
|----------------------------------|------------------------------|---|--|-----------------------------|--------------------|
| 1. Altimirano Student Apartments | 8. Fidel Center | 14. Kelly Petroleum Building | 19. National Radio Astronomy Observatory | 24. Speare Building | 30. Torres Hall |
| 2. Baca Hall | 9. Fitch Hall | 15. Lopez Chemistry Building | 20. NRAO Guest House | 25. South Hall | 31. Weir Hall |
| 3. Brown Hall | 10. Gymnasium | 16. Macey Center | 21. Presidents' Hall | 26. Student Activity Center | 32. Wells Hall |
| 4. Children's Center | 11. Headen Bureau of Geology | 17. Mountain Springs Apartments | 22. President's Residence | 27. Swim Center | 33. West Campus |
| 5. Cramer Hall | 12. Jones Annex | 18. Mineral Science and Engineering Complex | 23. Skeen Library | 28. Tech Athletic Field | 34. West Hall |
| 6. Desert Willow Apartments | 13. Jones Hall | | | 29. Tennis Courts | 35. Workman Center |
| 7. Driscoll Hall | | | | | |

1. Altamirano Student Apartments: two and four bedroom single-gender apartments.

2. Baca Hall, a co-ed residence hall, two bedrooms and a shared bath, and 24-hour quiet hours, no alcohol, no tobacco policy.

3. Brown Hall houses the business and administrative offices, including the office of the president and vice presidents.

4. Children's Center provides care for children of New Mexico Tech's students, staff, faculty and Socorro community members.

5. Cramer Hall hosts Computer Science, Psychology, Educational Outreach and Master's of Science for Teachers.

6. Desert Willow is a residence hall for single students and students with families. Each unit contains two bedrooms, one bath, a full kitchen and a living room.

7. Driscoll Hall is an all-female residence hall with community bathrooms on each floor, and a community kitchen on the second floor.

8. Fidel Center, student center for campus dining, a coffee shop, bookstore, post office, game room, Center for Student Success, Registrar, Residential Life, Student Affairs, Cashier, Financial Aid, Advancement & Alumni Relations, Admission, and the Counseling & Health Center.

9. Fitch Hall is home to the Communication, Liberal Arts, and Social Sciences Department.

10. Gymnasium: Two large gyms, a weight room, cardio equipment, indoor climbing wall, racquetball and squash courts.

11. Headen Geology Center, the facility houses Mineral Museum, publications store, labs and scientific reference collection.

12. Jones Annex: Biology and Civil and Environmental Engineering

13. Jones Hall: Materials Engineering.

14. Kelly Petroleum Building, home to the Petroleum Recovery Research Center.

15. Lopez Chemistry Building: houses the Chemistry Department.

16. Macey Center contains 600-seat auditorium, the Performing Arts Center and meeting rooms.

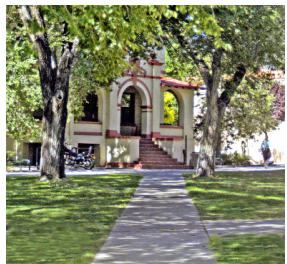

17. Mountain Springs Apartments: for single students, students with families and graduate students.

18. Mineral Science and Engineering Complex: home to Petroleum, Chemical and Mineral Engineering departments, and Earth & Environmental Sciences.

19. National Radio Astronomy Observatory: houses scientific, engineering, technical, computer and support staff for the VLA and the VLBA.

21. President's Hall: women's rooms on the upper floors, men's rooms on the lower level.

23. Skeen Library: contains over 600,000 books and documents.

24. Speare Academic Center for Technology, Management Department.

25. South Hall: Two bedroom, single-gender suites, with shared bathroom.

26. Student Activities Center: Auditorium, Campus Police

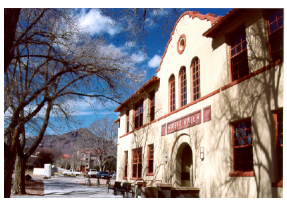

27. Swim Center, open year-round; in the winter the pool is covered with an inflatable bubble.

28. Athletic Field: Multi-sports use, including rugby, soccer and ultimate frisbee

30. Torres Hall: fully-furnished double bedrooms, with multiple community bathrooms on each floor. Study lounges available on every floor.

31. Weir Hall is home to the Mathematics and Mechanical Engineering departments.

32. Wells Hall: houses New Mexico Tech's business and administrative offices.

33. West Campus: Data Center, EMRTC,

Etscorn Observatory, Facilities Management,

Fine Arts Center, 18-hole golf course, Golf Pro Shop, IRIS/PASSCAL, and the "M" Mountain Grill.

34. West Hall: All-male residence hall.

35. Workman Center: Offices for the Physics department, Electrical Engineering, and the Langmuir Laboratory for Atmospheric Research.