Welcome to the Child Care Assistance Program. This program is to support our families while they are working, attending school, participating in an approved activity, or participating in TANF. You may request a full copy of the Child Care Assistance regulations (8.15.2 NMAC) from your local office or obtain a copy at www.nmececd.org.

AGREEMENT TO PROVIDE INFORMATION

I agree to provide information needed to determine eligibility for benefits for myself and others for whom I am applying. I understand that my social security number is not required to receive benefits. I understand that I have to prove my eligibility and agree to do this. I give my permission to the New Mexico Early Childhood Education & Care Department (ECECD) to contact persons or agencies who have knowledge of my circumstances to obtain needed information which I may not be able to give or verify. I understand that all information given to ECECD is confidential and is restricted to ECECD employees who need it for the administration of programs for which I have applied and that this information will be used solely for the purpose of establishing eligibility, amount of benefits, or for providing services. I further understand that confidential information may be released to other agencies involved in the administration of federally assisted programs that provide income supplemental benefits.

CLIENTS' RIGHTS

Application requirements. In order to decide if you can get childcare benefits, you must turn in a complete application and provide certain documents, including proof of countable income, proof of age, relationship and identity for your child and required information for all household members. See 8.15.2.10 NMAC.

If you do not provide all the required documents with your application, ECECD will send you a letter, telling you what documents you need to provide. You will have at least 14 (fourteen) days to turn in these documents. See 8.15.2.10(B) NMAC. ECECD must process your application within 10 working days of receiving all the required documents. See 8.15.2.16(C) NMAC. List of requirement documents can be found at www.nmececd.org/child-care-assistance/

Finding a Child Care Provider. ECECD promotes equal access. You have the right to select a provider of your choice. Visit www.newmexicokids.org or call New Mexico Kids Resource and Referral at 505.277.7900 in Albuquerque or 1.800.691.9067 statewide for a list of providers. To view health and safety requirements met by the provider, history of violations of these requirements, and quality rating met by the provider, please visit www.newmexicokids.org. Any concerns regarding your child care provider, to include abuse or neglect, please call 1-888-351-0037 or emailing at ChildCare.Complaint@state.nm.us.

Duration of benefits. If you qualify for benefits, ECECD must approve you for a 12-month eligibility period, unless you request a shorter time frame. See 8.15.2.11(B) NMAC. You may suspend your case for up to 3 months at any time during your 12-month eligibility if you do not need child care. Your child care provider will not receive payment during this time. This request may be submitted by fax, e-mail, or telephone to the department. See 8.15.2.14(A) NMAC.

You will remain eligible for child care assistance if a temporary change in activity occurs. Temporary changes are changes that last no longer than 3 months. A temporary change in activity includes: 1) a limited absence from work for employed parents including for periods of family leave (including parental leave) or sick leave; 2) interruption in work for a seasonal worker; 3) a holiday or break for parents who are in school or participating in training program; or 4) reduction in work, training or education hours, as long as the parent is still working or attending training or education. See 8.15.2.7(HH) and 8.15.2.11(B)(4) NMAC.

If the loss of activity becomes non-temporary, you will be given a three (3) month grace period for the purpose of securing a new approved activity. You may continue to use childcare during this time. If you do not secure a new approved activity by the end of this grace period, your case will be closed. See 8.15.2.11(B)(5), 8.15.2.14(B), (C)(1) NMAC.

Complaints. You may ask to speak with a supervisor if you are dissatisfied with the services you have received or if have questions regarding your case that you feel your caseworker has not been able to address. You may also submit a complaint orally or in writing any time to a child care assistance office. See 8.15.2.23 NMAC.

Confidentiality. Your information will remain confidential and will only be released in the following circumstances: to you at your request; to someone who has written authorization from you; where the individual's involvement in the administration of federally assisted programs; or as requested in a subpoena. See 8.15.2.25 NMAC.

Civil Rights Statement. It is unlawful to discriminate against any applicant or recipient of any program administered by ECECD due to race, color, sex, age, religious creed, national origin, handicap or political beliefs. Complaint of discrimination may be filed with ECECD's central office, the U.S. Department of Justice, or the Civil Rights Commission in Washington, D.C.

Fair Hearing. You or your representative may request a Fair Hearing if you do not agree with any decision made on any matter concerning your case. You can have a friend or family members participate in the fair hearing with you. You may also be able to get free legal help. To learn more about free legal help, call NM Legal Aid at (833) LGL-HELP ((833) 545- 4357). The request for a Fair Hearing must be made in writing within 30 days from the date that the Department took action affecting your benefits. Please mail request to ECECD-Early Care, Education and Nutrition, PO Drawer 5619 Santa Fe, NM 87502-5619. You have the right to examine, prior to the hearing, your case record and documents used in the determination of the appealed action. You may elect to continue receiving benefits pending the outcome of the Fair Hearing. However, if the decision is not in your favor, you will be required to repay this money unless the hearing decision or Division Director authorizes otherwise. See 8.15.2.22 NMAC

CLIENTS' RESPONSIBILITIES Client Costs. You may be responsible to pay incidental costs in situations such as field trips, special lunches or other similar situations; and gross receipt taxes to providers. See 8.15.2.15(E)(1-3) NMAC.

Responsibility for Co-Payment. You may be required to pay a portion of child care costs, known as co-payments. Co-payments are determined by household income and size. Copayments for each additional child are determined at one half of the co-payment for the previous child. Each child's co-payment will be adjusted based on the block of time the child is in care. Clients pay co-payments directly to their child care provider and must remain current in their payments. A client who does not pay co-payments may be disqualified until the copayment is paid or until an agreement is made between the client and the provider to bring the co-payment current. Co-payments are re- determined at the time of recertification. A copayment schedule can be obtained in the local child care office or at <https://www.nmececd.org/child-care-assistance/>. See 8.15.2.13(A-D) NMAC.

You are responsible for paying for any additional child care hours used but not authorized on the approved Child Care Placement Agreement. See 8.15.2.17(D) NMAC.

Notice of changes. If you have a change that affects your need for care, including a non-temporary change in activity, or household members moving in or out of the house, you must notify ECECD within fourteen (14) calendar days. See 8.15.2.13(G) NMAC.

You must notify providers and your caseworker at least 14-days before changing providers. If you do not notify ECECD of a change in providers at least 14 days before the change takes place, then you are responsible for payment to the new provider until the final date of payment to the former provider. See 8.15.2.13(G)(2) NMAC.

Verifications. With your consent, a Department representative may contact other people in order to verify your eligibility for child care assistance. The information you give will be subject to verification by federal, state and local officials through computer cross-matching with other agencies, and through the state Income and Eligibility Verification System.

Fraud Penalties. Providing false information, knowingly leaving out important information, or misusing your child care assistance benefits is considered fraud. If it is determined that you have committed fraud, appropriate sanctions, including recoupment of payments, termination of benefits, and referral to law enforcement, may be initiated by the department. See 8.15.2.20 NMAC.

I acknowledge that I have received, read and understand the above rights and responsibilities.
