

New Mexico Tech
Student Research Symposium
Oral Presentation Evaluation

SCALE: 1-5 (1-Poor, 5-Strong)

1. Audience Awareness (select all that apply, circle overall ability): 1 2 3 4 5

- Presenter establishes context and relevance of the project to general educated audience
- Presenter defines discipline-specific technical terms and concepts
- Presenter responds well to audience questions
- None of the above

Comments: _____

2. Scientific Reasoning (select all that apply, circle overall ability): 1 2 3 4 5

- The project has a clear purpose, clear methodology, and is well-defined
- The presenter(s) communicate(s) a reasoned and logical approach to solving the problem
- Conclusions or recommendations are consistent with the study's findings
- None of the above

Comments: _____

3. Organization (select all that apply, circle overall ability): 1 2 3 4 5

- Presentation is logically organized
- Includes appropriate transitions between key points
- Includes a summary of conclusions
- None of the above

Comments: _____

4. Design/Format (select all that apply, circle overall ability): 1 2 3 4 5

- Slide background and fonts are clear, visible, and appropriate in size, type, and color
- Amount of text in slides is limited to key phrases
- Graphics are referred to and explained
- Special effects (sounds, fade-ins, animation) used sparingly and purposefully
- None of the above

Comments: _____

5. Incorporation of Source Material (select all that apply, circle overall ability): 1 2 3 4 5

- Secondary source material is properly cited using an accepted citation format (e.g., APA, etc.)
- Source material is sufficiently summarized, paraphrased, or quoted, with a sufficient amount of sources
- None of the above

Comments: _____

6. Delivery (select all that apply, circle overall ability): 1 2 3 4 5

- Presenter wears professional attire
- Presenter appears confident, composed, and makes sufficient eye contact with the audience
- Presenter speaks clearly with precise and projects well using precise language
- Presenter uses minimal distracting gestures or ums/uhs
- Presenter does not block audience's view of screen
- None of the above

Comments: _____

Final comments: _____